

You Have the Final Say

BeShiny Hymns · Release: 4 December 2026

When the house has gone quiet and sleep will not come
And tomorrow brings questions we cannot outrun
You remember our tears, You have counted them all
With our hearts still trembling, on You we call

Whose word will tell us where we belong?
Jesus, You have the final say
We are Yours, in Your love we stand
Lead us on in the truth of Your word

When the old accusations return to our ears
And the enemy speaks to the worst of our fears
You have carried our sins, You were nailed to the tree
Now You live at the Father's right hand and plead for me

Neither death nor the troubles that meet us today
Nor the powers above us can tear us away
In the love of our Saviour, our lives are secure
You are with us in all that we have to endure

Whose word will tell us where we belong?
Jesus, You have the final say
We are Yours, in Your love we stand
Lead us on in the truth of Your word

For the mercy You give us, we bring You our praise
Let the truth You have spoken take root in our ways
Give us courage to stand with the frightened and worn
And to tell of the hope in our Saviour's dawn

Whose word will tell us where we belong?
Jesus, You have the final say
We are Yours, in Your love we stand
Lead us on in the truth of Your word

We are Yours
Jesus, You have the final say
